

State of Indiana vs. John R. Myers, II
Case 55D02-0604-MR-87

A total of 12 jurors and 3 alternate jurors were selected to serve as the jury in the case of State of Indiana vs. John R. Myers, II. By agreement of the parties to this case, the three alternate jurors will be designated by the Court at the conclusion of evidence and prior to jury deliberations. Per Indiana Jury 10, the jurors will only be identified by their number throughout the trial; they will not be publicly identified without their consent after the jury trial is concluded. Jury Rule 10 reads” “Personal information relating to a juror or prospective juror not disclosed in open court is confidential other than for the use of the parties and counsel. The court shall maintain that confidentiality to an extent consistent with the constitutional and statutory rights of the parties.”
